4th Sunday of Advent

19 December 2021

Hi Everyone,

Welcome to the last Sunday before Christmas! It's somewhat difficult to feel Christmassy these days – perhaps we are still a little shell-shocked from the roller-coaster ride we have been on during the year. I console myself with a daily dose of caffeine and a pink-iced cupcake at Fergusson Plarre each morning which does nothing good for the waistline but a fair amount of good helping me to feel human again. What are your secret indulgences? Perhaps we should have a communal confession of our little peccadilloes at Mass this weekend!

READINGS AT MASS

This weekend we hear the great story of Mary's visit to her cousin Elizabeth when they both became pregnant. There is a real sense of haste in the reading and I think my imagination tells me that Mary had something wonderful to share with her cousin and she couldn't wait to get there to tell her kinswoman.

The response of Elizabeth is awesome – the child in her womb kicks like mad and she cries out, "Why should I be honoured with a visit from the mother of my Lord?" Now I don't know very much, if anything, about pregnancy but I can just imagine the delight that both of them expressed with their own personal but changed circumstances. Elizabeth who was getting on a bit and Mary who received a most strange visitor. Can you imagine the chatter? Can you imagine the immense delight of two women as they shared their stories? I guess it was a bit like a creche when mothers get together and ooh and aah about each other's stories and wonder what the future will be for them and their children. Not that I know anything about creches either!

The story is a story of delight and of joy and that in itself is heart-warming. I have been spending a lot of time with Anne and Bram's 3 grandchildren lately and they are absolutely mesmerizing. Not having children of my own, I find it fascinating to watch them – learn new things each day, endlessly demanding to be fed, sleeping, crawling, standing, walking, messing everything up and making noises that only a parent can interpret. It has been a delight!

IN OUR PARISH

Next week we celebrate the birth of another child – Jesus. He was a child like we once were and the children and the grandchildren that so many of you have! He was helpless at birth but he needed the love and care of his parents and probably grandparents and extended family to grow to become the person we believe in: a saviour, a healer, a messenger of God, indeed, the Son of God. Through that same baby, you and I became the daughters and sons of God. And that is marvellous!

Blessings and peace.

REFLECTION ON THIS WEEK'S READINGS

The visitation is one of the moving scenes in the Gospel. On a human level, here are two cousins, unexpectedly pregnant in the most extraordinary circumstances, meeting and offering each other greetings and support. We can see the scene and feel the bond.

In the Gospel of Luke this moment is pivotal. These women meet in the mountains where God has always been manifest to the Israelites. Elizabeth is the Old Covenant made to Israel and she carries John who will be the herald of the Messiah. Mary, literally, embodies the new, and final, covenant in Jesus.

Elizabeth recognises what is happening here and she embraces all that God is doing for the world. She has tasted the promise of God and now sees its fulfilment.

On a more mundane level, however, a meeting like this would have occasioned much comment and speculation from those outside the inner circle. We only have to imagine it happening today in any small suburb or country town for us to appreciate the human scale of the unfolding drama.

The Iona Community has explored the unwritten history in their story of Mmes Matthew, Mark and Luke, 'The village gossips'.

Narrator: In any small village, news travels quickly. Therefore it is only to be expected that the strange changes in the lives of Mary and Elizabeth might have been food for other people's thought.

Mrs Matthew: Well, ladies, you know how I'm not one for gossip, but wait until you hear this. You know that old woman Elizabeth, with the man who has not spoken for nine months.

Mrs Mark: Yes, what about them?

Mrs Matthew: They say she's had a little boy.

Mrs Luke: At her age? She's 88 if she's a day!

Mrs Matthew: Well, that's what I heard and it was on very good authority!

Mrs Luke: Are you sure you've got the right woman? You're not mixing her up with her cousin?

Mrs Mark: Who? Mary?

Mrs Luke: That's her! Now, I'm not one for talking about anybody but wait until I tell you this. She's pregnant!

Mrs Mark: Never! How do you know?

Mrs Luke: You can tell. You can just tell.

Mrs Matthew: Oh yes, you can tell all right. I heard her in the store last week asking for a dress eight sizes too big for her.

Mrs Luke: There you are. Draw your own conclusions. Now, I know that this will not go any further, but I hear that she and a certain young man are planning to leave the district.

Mrs Matthew: Who is the young man?

Mrs Luke: The joiner's boy, Joseph.

Mrs Mark: Never!

Mrs Luke: Well, that's what they say and I'm not one for gossip.

Mrs Mark: So, have you heard what they're saying about the so-called census?

Mrs Matthew: No. Tell us.

Mrs Mark: Well, I happened to hear that the reason the Romans want our names is not to send us birthday cards.

Mrs Luke: Well, why are they having a census?

Mrs Mark: To register us for a 'poll tax'.

Mrs Matthew: I heard it was a 'community charge'.

Mrs Mark: 'A rose by any other name'.

Mrs Luke: They wouldn't do that, would they?

Mrs Mark: Well I'm just warning you. Mind, I'm not one for gossip.

Mrs Luke: Nor me.

Mrs Matthew: Nor me.

The story of the visitation keeps the rumour going that just when we think we can figure God out, predict how God will enter our lives and our world, he does something none of us can imagine. And the best thing about this rumour is – it's true.

As we wait for Christmas to come again into our lives, let's make room for Jesus Christ who turns our expectations upside down and always gives the gossips plenty to talk about.

FIRST READING

Micah 5:1-4

The Lord says this:

You, Bethlehem Ephrathah, the least of the clans of Judah, out of you will be born for me the one who is to rule over Israel;
his origin goes back to the distant past, to the days of old.
The Lord is therefore going to abandon them till the time when she who is to give birth gives birth.
Then the remnant of his brothers will come back to the sons of Israel.
He will stand and feed his flock
with the power of the Lord,
with the majesty of the name of his God.
They will live secure, for from then on he will extend his power to the ends of the land. He himself will be peace.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM      PSALM 79: LORD MAKE US TURN TO YOU

Psalm 79:2-3. 15-16. 18-19. R. v.4

Response:      Lord, make us turn to you;
let us see your face and we shall be saved.

O Shepherd of Israel, hear us, shine forth from your cherubim throne.
O Lord, rouse up your might,
O Lord, come to our help

Response

God of hosts, turn again, we implore, look down from heaven and see.
Visit this vine and protect it,
the vine your right hand has planted.

Response

May your hand be on the man you have chosen,
the man you have given your strength.
And we shall never forsake you again:
give us life that we may call upon your name.

Response

SECOND READING

Hebrews 10:5-10

This is what Christ said, on coming into the world:

You who wanted no sacrifice or oblation,
prepared a body for me.
You took no pleasure in holocausts or sacrifices for sin;
then I said,
just as I was commanded in the scroll of the book,
'God, here I am! I am coming to obey your will!'

Notice that he says first: You did not want what the Law lays down as the things to be offered, that is: the sacrifices, the oblations, the holocausts and the sacrifices for sin, and you took no pleasure in them; and then he says: Here I am! I am coming to obey your will. He is abolishing the first sort to replace it with the second. And this will was for us

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Luke 1:38

Alleluia, alleluia!
I am the servant of the Lord: may his will for me be done
Alleluia!

GOSPEL

Luke 3:10-18

Mary set out and went as quickly as she could to a town in the hill country of Judah. She went into Zechariah's house and greeted Elizabeth. Now as soon as Elizabeth heard Mary's greeting, the child leapt in her womb and Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit. She gave a loud cry and said, 'Of all women you are the most blessed, and blessed is the fruit of your womb. Why should I be honoured with a visit from the mother of my Lord? For the moment your greeting reached my ears, the child in my womb leapt for joy. Yes, blessed is she who believed that the promise made her by the Lord would be fulfilled.'

APOSTLES CREED

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ,
his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting.
Amen.

Cel: The Lord be with you.

All: *And with your spirit.

Cel: Lift up your hearts.

All: *We lift them up to the Lord.

Cel: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

All: *It is right and just.

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God of hosts.

Heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord

Hosanna in the highest.

Cel: Behold the Lamb of God.

Behold him who takes away the sins of the World.

Blessed are those called to the supper of the Lamb.

All: *Lord I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed.
