OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, KING OF THE UNIVERSE - 26 November 2023

Dear sisters and brothers,

Today's Gospel story, popularly referred to as the "Last Judgment", has captured the minds and imaginations of people down through the ages; most famously, perhaps, in and through Michaelangelo's famous painting in the Sistine Chapel in Rome.

In reflecting on this dramatic story, however, I suggest it is not so much about a "last judgment" but about the judgments (or decisions) we make in the everyday circumstances of our lives. The real point of the story is that we encounter the Lord – and so share in his risen eternal life – in the encounters, in our day-to-day lives, with the hungry, the thirsty, the stranger, the naked, the sick and the imprisoned. The "kingdom" that we are invited to inhabit is a realm of peace and justice in which all – but especially those indicated above – are included and welcome. This kingdom is one we are invited to share and to build in our earthly lives and in which we will share fully in the heavenly realm where it is fully established.

As we celebrate the Feast of Christ the King today, we celebrate that Jesus welcomes all, especially the poor and those most in need, to share in his life and love. Today's 1st Reading from the Prophet Ezekiel foreshadows the sort of "king" that Jesus is: a king who is primarily a shepherd, rather than a judge. He "rescues" his flock when they lose their way, he "pastures" them – sees that they are nourished, he gives them "rest" when they grow weary, "looks for" and finds the "lost one", "brings back the stray, bandages the wounded and makes the weak strong ... and watches over the fat and healthy ... being a true shepherd to them".

Any judgment involved in our relationship with God is a judgment we make on ourselves by our limitations in accepting the invitation to the "kingdom" to which we are invited. Today, in honouring Christ as King, we honour him as a Shepherd-King who never ceases to extend a loving welcome to all to his kingdom, no matter how resistant we might be to take up the invitation. We give thanks today for

Parish Leadership and Exploration Group

At our meeting last Tuesday night, we confirmed a commitment to a “Christmas Project”. This project is to extend a Christmas greeting to our neighbours in the local community of Port Melbourne, Albert Park and Middle Park. We will do this by printing 3,000 postcard size cards, wishing our neighbours A joyous and blessed Christmas to you and your loved ones. The cards will also express a warm invitation to attend one of our Christmas Masses, especially the Christmas Eve Family Mass, in which interested children will be invited to participate.

We hope that many parishioners will assist with the distribution of these cards to the households in their neighbourhood. The cards will be bundled into groups of 100, with each bundle accompanied by a map of a specific area in which the cards may be distributed. We plan for the bundles of cards and accompanying map to be available for collection from our Churches on the weekend of 9/10 December and that they will be distributed in the week that follows. Please consider being one of the parishioners who might distribute a bundle of cards.

Congratulations Fr Matthew

This coming Thursday, 30 November, Fr Matthew McPhee celebrates the 70th anniversary of his 1st Profession as a Carmelite ... a wonderful milestone. Please remember Fr Matthew especially in your prayers on this occasion.

Prayer Cards for Peace in the Middle East

These cards have been produced by the Church’s humanitarian aid organisation, Aid to the Church in Need. The prayer is printed elsewhere in this newsletter. There are also a number of cards containing this prayer available for collection at the Church entrances. Please continue to pray for peace.

Newsletter distribution by email

As a result of the recent parish census, we now have an expanded list of parishioners’ email addresses. Consequently, we plan to distribute our weekly newsletter by email to all parishioners whose email address we hold. If you do NOT want to receive the newsletter by email, please let Cathy know at the parish office (Cathy@sj-mc.org.au or 9681 9600).

Please note: We will continue to print the weekly newsletter for collection at the Churches each weekend.

Blessings for the week ahead.

PRAYER FOR PEACE IN THE MIDDLE EAST

Lord Jesus Christ,

The Holy Land is once again struck by violence, hatred, and death. Lord look with mercy upon the land that was your earthly home.

Receive the deceased into your presence. Comfort those who mourn, are wounded, or forced to flee. Be close to all who are full of fear and despair.

You are peace and the light of the nations, put an end to the spiral of terror and suffering in the Holy land and the whole Middle East.

Let peace and justice flourish at the holy sites. You are our refuge. Let the people be safe in your Love.

Have mercy on us and on our time. Amen.

REFLECTION Being the living presence of God

Only Matthew tells us this story of final judgement in the Kingdom of God. He paints a picture of the glorious arrival of the King and the assembly of all the nations of people who are then separated into two groups, sheep and goats.

Judgement is then pronounced - not on the basis of physical beauty, wealth, power, status or even religious practice.

What determines who will inherit the eternal life of the Kingdom are the works of service done to fellow human beings in need: the hungry, the thirsty, the stranger, the naked, the sick and those in prison.

Perhaps surprisingly, there is no mention in the list of religious duties like prayer, liturgical worship, fasting, giving tithes or indeed any identifiably religious practice.

Very likely these things are presumed to be present in all the assembled people. But, the difference between the two groups is how they responded to fellow human beings in need.

At the end of the day, the disciple is called to be the Kingdom (living presence) of God in the world and to transform the suffering of its people into joy by deeds of loving kindness. The goats appear to have made horrible situations suffered by human beings worse by their neglect, their lack of love.

The virtuous disciple is the living presence of Jesus in the world. He or she realises that Jesus has entrusted the kingdom into his/her hands. In the Kingdom of Jesus, the disciple is not master but 'servant' - remember how frequently we have heard about the first being last and the last first?

The whole idea of 'kingdom' has been thoroughly re-written in the teaching of Jesus: there is only one master and you are all brothers... The disciples are indeed kings - they have the power of Jesus' spirit in them. But this power is not to be exercised in the classical sense 'having power over others', but by being true servants. The power of the spirit of Jesus fuels deeds of loving kindness for the brothers and sisters of Jesus - reversing horrible human conditions, and bringing healing and salvation.

This is, once again, a 'warning' parable for disciples to make sure that they are living the life of the Kingdom properly. It is not meant as a 'prophecy' about the last day. It is meant for careful consideration by the disciples in their attempt to live the life of the kingdom which has been entrusted to them.

Disciples of Jesus are not to repeat the mistake of the Pharisees in objectifying faith in God and reducing it to external observance.

Disciples are to seize the life (grace) of the Kingdom within them, to work industriously with this great gift so that the life of Jesus at work in them overflows into deeds of loving kindness; so that, becoming one in heart and mind with Christ (as St Paul puts it), the disciples becomes Christ in his/her moment of history - seeing, thinking and acting as Jesus would.

FIRST READING

Ezekiel 34:11-12. 15-17

The Lord says this: I am going to look after my flock myself and keep all of it in view. As a shepherd keeps all his flock in view when he stands up in the middle of his scattered sheep, so shall I keep my sheep in view. I shall rescue them from wherever they have been scattered during the mist and darkness. I myself will pasture my sheep, I myself will show them where to rest – it is the Lord who speaks. I shall look for the lost one, bring back the stray, bandage the wounded and make the weak strong. I shall watch over the fat and healthy. I shall be a true shepherd to them.

As for you, my sheep, the Lord says this: I will judge between sheep and sheep, between rams and he-goats.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

PSALM 23: THE LORD IS MY SHEPHERD; THERE IS NOTHING I SHALL WANT.

Response: The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.
In verdant pastures he gives me repose.
Beside restful waters he leads me;
he refreshes, refreshes my soul.

Response

He guides me in right paths
for his name's sake.
Even though I walk in the dark valley
I feel no evil, for you are at my side with your rod and staff and you give me courage.

Response

You spread the table before me
in the sight of my foes;

you anoint my head with oil;
my cup overflows.

Response

Only goodness and kindness follow me
all the days of my life;
and I shall dwell in the house of the LORD
for years to come.

Response

SECOND READING

1 Corinthians 15:20-26. 28

Christ has been raised from the dead, the first-fruits of all who have fallen asleep. Death came through one man and in the same way the resurrection of the dead has come through one man. Just as all people die in Adam, so all people will be brought to life in Christ; but all of them in their proper order: Christ as the first-fruits and then, after the coming of Christ, those who belong to him. After that will come the end, when he hands over the kingdom to God the Father, having done away with every sovereignty, authority and power. For he must be king until he has put all his enemies under his feet and the last of the enemies to be destroyed is death. And when everything is subjected to him, then the Son himself will be subject in his turn to the One who subjected all things to him, so that God may be all in all.

GOSPEL

Matthew 25:31-46

Jesus said to his disciples: 'When the Son of Man comes in his glory, escorted by all the angels, then he will take his seat on his throne of glory. All the nations will be assembled before him and he will separate men one from another as the shepherd separates sheep from goats. He will place the sheep on his right hand and the goats on his left. Then the King will say to those on his right hand, "Come, you whom my Father has blessed, take for your heritage the kingdom prepared for you since the foundation of the world. For I was hungry and you gave me food; I was thirsty and you gave me drink; I was a stranger and you made me welcome; naked and you clothed me, sick and you visited me, in prison and you came to see me." Then the virtuous will say to him in reply, "Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you; or thirsty and give you drink? When did we see you a stranger and make you welcome; naked and clothe you; sick or in prison and go to see you?" And the King will answer, "I tell you solemnly, in so far as you did this to one of the least of these brothers of mine, you did it to me." Next he will say to those on his left hand, "Go away from me, with your curse upon you, to the eternal fire prepared for the devil and his angels. For I was hungry and you never gave me food; I was thirsty and you never gave me anything to drink; I was a stranger and you never made me welcome, naked and you never clothed me, sick and in prison and you never visited me." Then it will be their turn to ask, "Lord, when did we see you hungry or thirsty, a stranger or naked, sick or in prison, and did not come to your help?" Then he will answer, "I tell you solemnly, in so far as you neglected to do this to one of the least of these, you neglected to do it to me." And they will go away to eternal punishment, and the virtuous to eternal life.'

APOSTLES CREED

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ,
his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again from the dead;

he ascended into heaven,
 and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty;
 from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.
 I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church,
 the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,
 the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

 How to make Love's vict'ry known.

Turn our worship into witness
 In the sacrament of life
 Send us forth to love and serve You
 Bringing peace where there is strife
 Give us Christ Your great compassion
 To forgive as You forgave
 May we still behold Your image
 In the world You died to save.
