Hi Everyone,

CELEBRATION OF ST TITUS BRANDSMA

This weekend Carmelites throughout the world are celebrating the feastday of our new saint, Titus Brandsma. You will find plenty of information about him on our Carmelites webpage but I would like to share a prayer with you that Titus himself wrote during his incarceration in a concentration camp.

Before a Picture of Jesus in my cell

*O Jesus, when I look on you,
My love for you starts up anew,
And tells me that your heart loves me,
And you my special friend would be.*

*More courage I will need for sure,
But any pain will I endure,
Because it makes me like to you
And leads unto your kingdom too.*

*In sorrow do I find my bliss,
For sorrow now no more is this:
Rather the path that must be trod,
That makes me one with you, my God.*

*Oh, leave me here alone and still,
And all around, the cold and chill.
To enter here I will have none;
I weary not when I'm alone,*

*For, Jesus, you are at my side;
Never so close did we abide.
Stay with me, Jesus, my delight,
Your presence near makes all things right.*

Both our Churches are fitted with a hearing induction loop. Please use the 'T' or other appropriate switch on your hearing aid. Please tell us if you experience any difficulty.

MASKS IN CHURCH

Given the prevalence of both COVID and influenza at present, I would encourage people to wear masks in Church if they so wish. Although it is not mandated, it may be wiser to protect yourself and others.

Blessings and peace,

CORREA FAMILY THANK YOU

Frances, Jeremy and the extended Correa family would like to thank everyone who has showered them with their comforting messages, prayers, kindness, cards, floral tributes, loving care and support on the passing of Gerhard Correa. They are very grateful.

SUPPORT A CARMEL IMPACT INITIATIVE

You can transform a young person's life in Timor-Leste with just one Meal.

Carmel Impact is asking for your support of 'Host a Meal, Empower a Dream'. When you support this fundraiser you will give another young person the precious gift of an education. This in turn will go on to change the lives of HUNDREDS of people around them. This initiative is built around sharing a meal and learning about the Timorese culture. You can choose to host a meal or afternoon tea in your home or workplace with attendees donating towards their experience. You can set up a fundraising page and invite others to donate to your page, or you can simply make a donation yourself. However you choose to get involved you'll help another child attend school, another young adult receive a Community Scholarship, and another young man progress on his Carmelite journey.

Find out more about how to get involved by scanning the QR code below to learn more, or go to the link <https://empower-a-dream.raisely.com/>.

REFLECTION ON THIS WEEK'S READINGS

Stop Talking to Yourself!

Conversation is what makes us human: we are word animals. Anyone who has been in hospital for some time knows that it is the lack of conversation which starts to tell. We need mouth to mouth resuscitation.

Did you notice in today's Gospel that the rich landowner is constantly murmuring to himself. He poses questions which he answers. He is so bound up with his possessions that there is no room in his life for real conversation with people or with God.

In muttering to himself, the rich man was becoming dehumanised and in danger that at the moment of death, he could find himself monologuing for all eternity, and that is a Hellish existence. He, and we, need to learn the language of Heaven and we begin that on earth.

There are two partners of conversation we need: With God we call it prayer. The Our Father is the conversation of the children of God with their heavenly Father. With other people, real dialogue might reveal something about them such that we need to respond wholeheartedly.

And then, draw closer to Our Lady who was the greatest conversation partner with God: 'Be it done unto me according to Thy word.' She is constantly trying to draw us into her conversation with God.

We could pause for a moment to ask Our Lady to help us to learn and practise the language of Heaven: 'now, and at the hour of our death.' Amen.

GLORIA

Refrain: Glory to God in the highest,
and on earth peace to people of good will. (Amen.)

1. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you,
we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. (Refrain)

2. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us. (Refrain)

3. For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father. (Refrain)

FIRST READING

Ecclesiastes 1:2,2:21-23

Vanity of vanities, the Preacher says. Vanity of vanities. All is vanity!

For so it is that a man who has laboured wisely, skilfully and successfully must leave what is his own to someone who has not toiled for it at all. This, too, is vanity and great injustice; for what does he gain for all the toil and strain that he has undergone under the sun? What of all his laborious days, his cares of office, his restless nights? This, too, is vanity.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

PSALM 90: IN EVERY AGE, O LORD

Ordinary Time 23C

Bob Hurd

- | | |
|--|---|
| 1. You turn man back to dust,
and say, "Return, O children of men."
To your eyes a thousand years
are like yesterday, come and gone, or like a watch in the night. | 3. Then teach us to number our days,
that we may gain wisdom of heart.
Turn back, O LORD! How long?
Show pity to your servants. |
| 2. You sweep them away like a dream, like grass which is fresh in the morning.
In the morning it sprouts and is fresh;
by evening it withers and fades. | 4. At dawn, fill us with your merciful love;
we shall exult and rejoice all our days.
Let the favor of the Lord our God be upon us;
give success to the work of our hands.
O give success to the work of our hands. |

SECOND READING

Colossians: 3:1-5, 9-11

Since you have been brought back to true life with Christ, you must look for the things that are in heaven, where Christ is, sitting at God's right hand. Let your thoughts be on heavenly things, not on the things that are on the earth, because you have died, and now the life you have is hidden with Christ in God. But when Christ is revealed – and he is your life – you too will be revealed in all your glory with him.

That is why you must kill everything in you that belongs only to earthly life: fornication, impurity, guilty passion, evil desires and especially greed, which is the same thing as worshipping a false god; and never tell each other lies. You have stripped off your old behaviour with your old self, and you have put on a new self which will progress towards true knowledge the more it is renewed in the image of its creator; and in that image there is no room for distinction between Greek and Jew, between the circumcised or the uncircumcised, or between barbarian and Scythian, slave and free man. There is only Christ: he is everything and he is in everything.

A man in the crowd said to Jesus, 'Master, tell my brother to give me a share of our inheritance.' 'My friend,' he replied, 'who appointed me your judge, or the arbitrator of your claims?' Then he said to them, 'Watch, and be on your guard against avarice of any kind, for a man's life is not made secure by what he owns, even when he has more than he needs.'

Then he told them a parable: 'There was once a rich man who, having had a good harvest from his land, thought to himself, "What am I to do? I have not enough room to store my crops." Then he said, "This is what I will do; I will pull down my barns and build bigger ones, and store all my grain and my goods in them, and I will say to my soul: My soul, you have plenty of good things laid by for many years to come; take things easy, eat, drink, have a good time." But God said to him, "Fool! This very night the demand will be made for your soul; and this hoard of yours, whose will it be then?" So it is when a man stores up treasure for himself in place of making himself rich in the sight of God.'

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
 and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,
 who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
 born of the Virgin Mary,
 suffered under Pontius Pilate,
 was crucified, died and was buried;
 he descended into hell;
 on the third day he rose again from the dead;
 he ascended into heaven,
 and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty;
 from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
 the holy catholic Church,
 the communion of saints,
 the forgiveness of sins,
 the resurrection of the body,
 and life everlasting. Amen.
