REFLECTION ON THIS WEEK'S READINGS

Hate your father

I am told that, in most Middle Eastern languages, there is no word for 'prefer'. Perhaps influenced by extremes of heat and cold, the vocabulary of 'love' and 'hate' is used instead. No one can imagine Jesus 'hating' Joseph, but he clearly gave preference to his mission, even as a precocious 12 year old in the Temple.

In today's Gospel, Jesus was preparing his followers, imminently and over the generations, for persecution. This would include real-life situations of families denouncing a son or daughter, or a brother turning over a brother to the authorities.

Imagine a Chinese Catholic hearing this Gospel this morning, and this afternoon being betrayed by family members for remaining loyal to the successor of St Peter. Jesus exhorts such a follower to prefer this cross over what the family considers politically correct.

We could pause for a moment to pray for all families, torn apart for allegiance to Jesus in His Church, that they may be re-united in the peace of the Risen Lord.

Wisdom 9:13-18

What man can know the intentions of God?
 Who can divine the will of the Lord?
 The reasonings of mortals are unsure
 and our intentions unstable;
 for a perishable body presses down the soul,
 and this tent of clay weighs down the teeming mind.
 It is hard enough for us to work out what is on earth,
 laborious to know what lies within our reach;
 who, then, can discover what is in the heavens?
 As for your intention, who could have learnt it, had you not granted Wisdom and sent your holy spirit from above?
 Thus have the paths of those on earth been straightened and men been taught what pleases you,
 and saved, by Wisdom.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM PSALM 90 - IN EVERY AGE, O LORD

Bob Hurd

In ev-ery age, O Lord, you have been our ref-uge.

| 1. You turn man back to dust,and say, "Return, O children of men."To your eyes a thousand yearsare like yesterday, come and gone,or like a watch in the night. 2. You sweep them away like a dream,like grass which is fresh in the morning.In the morning it sprouts and is fresh;by evening it withers and fades. | 3. Then teach us to number our days,that we may gain wisdom of heart.Turn back, O LORD! How long?Show pity to your servants. 4. At dawn, fill us with your merciful love;we shall exult and rejoice all our days.Let the favor of the Lord our God be upon us;give success to the work of our hands.O give success to the work of our hands. |

Philemon: 9-10,12-17

This is Paul writing, an old man now and, what is more, still a prisoner of Christ Jesus. I am appealing to you for a child of mine, whose father I became while wearing these chains: I mean Onesimus. I am sending him back to you, and with him – I could say – a part of my own self. I should have liked to keep him with me; he could have been a substitute for you, to help me while I am in the chains that the Good News has brought me. However, I did not want to do anything without your consent; it would have been forcing your act of kindness, which should be spontaneous. I know you have been deprived of Onesimus for a time, but it was only so that you could have him back for ever, not as a slave any more, but something much better than a slave, a dear brother; especially dear to me, but how much more to you, as a blood-brother as well as a brother in the Lord. So if all that we have in common means anything to you, welcome him as you would me.

GOSPEL

Luke 14:25-33

Great crowds accompanied Jesus on his way and he turned and spoke to them. 'If any man comes to me without hating his father, mother, wife, children, brothers, sisters, yes and his own life too, he cannot be my disciple. Anyone who does not carry his cross and come after me cannot be my disciple.

'And indeed, which of you here, intending to build a tower, would not first sit down and work out the cost to see if he had enough to complete it? Otherwise, if he laid the foundation and then found himself unable to finish the work, the onlookers would all start making fun of him and saying, "Here is a man who started to build and was unable to finish." Or again, what king marching to war against another king would not first sit down and consider whether with ten thousand men he could stand up to the other who advanced against him with twenty thousand? If not, then while the other king was still a long way off, he would send envoys to sue for peace. So in the same way, none of you can be my disciple unless he gives up all his possessions.'

APOSTLES CREED

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

BLESSING PRAYER FOR FATHERS' DAY

Cel: Blessed are you, Lord and Father of all life, who has given to us the gift of the fathers of our families.

Today we honour them, and we thank you for the numerous good things that are ours because of them.

All: Their love for us has been a sign of your divine affection and a sharing in your holy love.

Their continuous concern for our needs and welfare is a mirror of your holy providence.

Cel: Bless our fathers who are separated from us by silence, injury or violence.
Lift the burdens of guilt and touch us with your healing and forgiveness.

All: We remember with love our fathers who are now with you.
May they who have shared their very life with us,
live forever with you, our God and Heavenly Father.

Cel: Bless our fathers this day with strength, happiness and good health.

May this blessing and all graces, we pray,
descend upon our fathers:
in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

All: Amen.

Cel: Let's acknowledge and thank our fathers.

COMMUNION HYMN - HOLY GOD, WE PRAISE THY NAME

Holy God, we praise thy name.
 God of all, we bow before thee.
 All on earth thy scepter claim;
 all in heav'n above adore thee.
 Infinite thy vast domain,
 everlasting is thy reign.

Hark, the loud celestial hymn,
 angel choirs above are raising.
 Cherubim and seraphim,
 in unceasing chorus praising,
 fill the heav'ns with sweet accord:
 Holy, holy, holy Lord.

Lo! the apostolic train
 join thy sacred name to hallow.
 Prophets swell the glad refrain,
 and the blessed martyrs follow,
 and, from morn till set of sun,
 through the church the song goes on.

Refrain:        Lift up your hearts to the Lord,
In praise of His mercy!
Sing out your joy to the Lord,
His love is enduring.

Shout with joy to the Lord, all the earth!
Praise the glory of His name!
Say to God, "How wondrous your works,
how glorious your name!"        Refrain

Listen now, all you servants of God,
As I tell of these great works.
Blessed it be the Lord of my life,
His love will endure!        Refrain
