Thirty-Second Sunday of the Year      6 November 2022

Hi Everyone,

Greetings to you all with the hope that life is treating you kindly.

VALE: VONNIE BALDIE

I was very saddened to hear the news that Vonnie died earlier this week. It was a little unexpected and caught the family off-guard. She was a delightful parishioner: full of energy and good humour. When I first came to the Parish in 1998, Vonnie was helping Glenys in the Parish office and she was always a delight to be around. Her favourite saying was "OH MY GOD!" which she would trot out at any time.

She will be buried from Mount Carmel on Monday, 14 November at 10:00am.

Please pray for her and her family at this difficult time.

CARMELITE PROVINCIAL CHAPTER

From 7 - 11 November, the Carmelites from Australia and Timor Leste will hold their triennial Provincial Chapter, where they discuss their lives together, plan for the future and elect a new leadership team. This new leadership team will make decisions for the future and relevant appointments to communities and ministries. This means, of course, that the role of PP of our Parish will be up for discussion. Please pray for the success of the Chapter and the Carmelites as we look to the future.

ADVANCED WARNING

Due to the Provincial Chapter of the Carmelites, there will be NO weekday or Saturday morning Masses in the Parish from 7-12 November inclusive.

PRIESTLY AND DIACONAL ORDINATIONS OF ALBINO AND MARCOLINO

On Saturday, 12 November, Albino will be ordained a priest and Marcolino ordained a deacon at the 5:30pm Mass. There are important milestones in the lives of these 2 young men and their joint ordination ceremony will be held at Our Lady of Mount Carmel. We will be blessed by having a large group of Timorese Carmelites joining us and I would welcome any parishioners who wish to join us. Bishop Anthony Ireland will be the ordaining prelate.

PARISH SOCIAL EVENING

We are going to gather again for the 1st time in 2 years for our Parish Christmas Get-Together. So put Thursday, 1st December 2022 in your diaries. As usual our gathering

God our Father,

It helps, now and then, to step back and take a long view.

The kingdom is not only beyond our efforts, it is even beyond our vision.

We accomplish in our lifetime only a tiny fraction of the magnificent enterprise that is God’s work.

Nothing we do is complete, which is a way of saying that the kingdom always lies beyond us.

No statement says all that could be said.

No prayer fully expresses our faith.

No program accomplishes the Province’s mission.

No set of goals and objectives includes everything.

This is what we are about. We plant the seeds that one day will grow. We water seeds already planted, knowing that they hold future promise. We lay foundations that will need further development. We provide yeast that produces far beyond our capabilities.

We cannot do everything, and there is a sense of liberation in realizing that.

This enables us to do something, and to do it very well.

It may be incomplete, but it is a beginning, a step along the way, an opportunity for the Lord’s grace to enter and do the rest.

We may never see the end results, but that is the difference between the master builder and the worker. We are workers, not master builders, ministers, not messiahs.

We are prophets of a future not our own.

We ask this though Christ our Lord!

This prayer was composed by the late Bishop Ken Untener of Saginaw, drafted for a homily by Cardinal John Dearden in November 1979 for a celebration of departed priests. As a reflection on the anniversary of the martyrdom of Bishop Romero, Bishop Untener included in a reflection book a passage titled “The mystery of the Romero Prayer.” The mystery is that the words of the prayer are commonly attributed to Oscar Romero, but they were never spoken by him. Pope Francis used the “magnificent” prayer in December 2015 in his Christmas address to the Roman Curia.

The confusion seems to have arisen from a major paper on Catholic education given by Westminster’s Cardinal Basil Hume on 6 January 1997 where he quoted the prayer but, for reasons it is now impossible to fathom, misattributed it to Archbishop Romero. His paper was subsequently published in a the ‘Briefing’ documentary service on 20 February 1997. The prayer was then picked up by Caritas Internationalis in Rome and CAFOD in London – both of whom included it (together with the misattribution to Archbishop Romero) in materials being used for their strategic planning processes in the run-up to the Millennium Jubilee. Thereafter the beautiful prayer went around the global Church and, not surprisingly, it became known as ‘The Romero Prayer’.

Billy Elliott and the Resurrection

Billy Elliott was a boy brought up in a strife-torn mining town in the north of England. He discovered a passion for dancing. At an interview at the Royal Ballet School which was going badly, he was asked: 'What do you feel when you're dancing?'

'I've got fire in my body.' And he got the scholarship because the panel realised that when Billy danced, he became 'fully alive': bodymindspirit fully integrated. When Billy danced, everything that Billy was, was dancing.

That is what our Resurrection is all about. Our whole personality will be dancing with the radiance of Divine Fire coursing through our bodymindspirit. The Sadducees' small-minded sarcasm could not grasp that we will be bodies transfigured, translucent to divine light and energy.

We could take a moment to pray that, by the grace of God, our bodies will dance, enflamed by Divine Love.

GLORIA

Glory to God, Glory to God,
Glory to God in the highest
And on earth, peace on earth
Peace to people of goodwill.

We praise You, we bless You
We adore You, we glorify You
We give You thanks,
For Your great glory.
Lord God heavenly King,
O God Almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, only Begotten Son.
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father.
You take away the sins of the world,
Have mercy on us.
You take away the sins of the world,
Receive our prayer.
You are seated at the right hand
The right hand of the Father
Have mercy on us.

For You alone are the Holy One
You alone are the Lord.
You alone are the most High,
Jesus Christ.
With the Holy Spirit, in the glory
Of God the Father.

Amen, Amen.

FIRST READING

Maccabees 2 Mc 7:1-2, 9-14

There were seven brothers who were arrested with their mother. The king tried to force them to taste pig's flesh, which the Law forbids, by torturing them with whips and scourges. One of them, acting as spokesman for the others, said, 'What are you trying to find out from us? We are prepared to die rather than break the Law of our ancestors.'

With his last breath the second brother exclaimed, 'Inhuman fiend, you may discharge us from this present life, but the King of the world will raise us up, since it is for his laws that we die, to live again for ever.'

After him, they amused themselves with the third, who on being asked for his tongue promptly thrust it out and held out his hands, with these honourable words, 'It was heaven that gave me these limbs; for the sake of his laws I disdain them; from him I hope to receive them again.' The king and his attendants were astounded at the young man's courage and his utter indifference to suffering.

When this one was dead they subjected the fourth to the same savage torture. When he neared his end he cried, 'Ours is the better choice, to meet death at men's hands, yet relying on God's promise that we shall be raised up by him; whereas for you there can be no resurrection, no new life.'

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

PSALM 17 – LORD, WHEN YOUR GLORY APPEARS, MY JOY WILL BE FULL

Response: Lord, when your glory appears, my joy will be full, my joy will be full.

Hear, O LORD, a just suit;
attend to my outcry;
hearken to my prayer from lips without deceit.

Response

My steps have been steadfast in your paths,
my feet have not faltered.
I call upon you, for you will answer me, O God, O God;
incline your ear to me; hear my word.

Response

Keep me as the apple of your eye,
hide me in the shadow of your wings.
But I in justice shall behold your face;
on waking I shall be content in your presence.

Response

SECOND READING

2 Thessalonians 2:16 – 3:5

May our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God our Father who has given us his love and, through his grace, such inexhaustible comfort and such sure hope, comfort you and strengthen you in everything good that you do or say.

Finally, brothers, pray for us; pray that the Lord's message may spread quickly, and be received with honour as it was among you; and pray that we may be preserved from the interference of bigoted and evil people, for faith is not given to everyone. But the Lord is faithful, and he will give you strength and guard you from the evil one, and we, in the Lord, have every confidence that you are doing and will go on doing all that we tell you. May the Lord turn your hearts towards the love of God and the fortitude of Christ.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

ALLELUIA

Mass of Christ the Savior

GOSPEL

Luke 20:27. 34-38

Some Sadducees – those who say that there is no resurrection – approached Jesus and they put a question to him.

Jesus replied, 'The children of this world take wives and husbands, but those who are judged worthy of a place in the other world and in the resurrection from the dead do not marry because they can no longer die, for they are the same as the angels, and being children of the resurrection they are sons of God. And Moses himself implies that the dead rise again, in the passage about the bush where he calls the Lord the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob. Now he is God, not of the dead, but of the living; for to him all men are in fact alive.'

APOSTLES CREED

I believe in God, the Father almighty,
Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

Refrain

All that we have and all that we of-fer Comes from a heart both fright-ened and free, Take what we bring now and give what we need, All done in his name.

Verses

1. Some would re-ly on their pow-er,
2. Some-times the road may be lone-some,
3. Some-times when trou-bles are man-y.

Oth-ers put trust in their gold.
Of-ten we may lose our way.
Life can seem emp-ty, it's true.

Some have on-ly their Sav-ior.
Take cour-age and al-ways re-mem-ber
But look at the life of the Mas-ter,

Whose faith-ful-ness nev-er grows old,
I Love is-n't just for a day,
Who lov-ing-ly suf-fered for you.
